When court opened today Mr. Ivins and Mr. Bowers leaned over the judge's ench. Mr. Ivins had in his hand copies of a New York evening newspaper and a Syracuse evening newspaper which he showed to Justice Andrews. Counsel and Justice Andrews discussed articles in the papers for some time, and when the conference was over Justice Andrews reiterated his warning to the jury about reading newspapers.

Then counsel began their argument upon the admissibility of evidence concerning local affairs in Albany.

Mr. Bowers, for Col. Roosevelt, urged that the colonel be allowed to answer the question put to him yesterday as to information he possessed about an arrangement between Mr. Barnes "and a man named McCabe, at one time leader of the democratic party in Albany."

Ethics of Boss Rule.

The ethics of boss rule and machine politics as Theodore Roosevelt claims William Barnes expounded them, were related by the former President upon the witness stand late yesterday after The colonel swore that Mr. Barnes had told him that the "riffraff could not be trusted to handle political affairs without a leader," and had expressed himself as being in favor of the democratic and republican organ izations combining to defeat legisla-tion providing for direct primaries. The colonel related what he alleged to saying the Brotherhood of Trainmen be the substance of conversations he would aid them.

"I opposed the strike," said Pierce. He declared that Lee had gone back on his promises to the shopmen.

At this time a firm footing has been gained by the landing forces, which assures the allies control of the tip of the peninsula and the entire western section.

Turkish Towns Burned.

Despite the decision of the Turkish government to refuse all correspond-ents access to the Dardanelles region, exception was made in the case of two Germans and the Associated Press correspondent. The party arrived on the night of May I, while the town of Dardanelles, after thirty hours, was still ablaze. The scene was one of desolation, with crumpled walls and houses. Maldos also was burned, and the town of Gallipoli was set ablaze—all by indirect fire from the Gulf of Saros, with ignition shells directed by captive balloons and aeroplanes. loons and aeroplanes.
